Dear Parent

As you may have heard, last year's school choir have been invited to perform at the Royal Albert Hall in London on Wednesday 16th November. This is an invaluable experience for our pupils, one which promises to be a truly unforgettable evening. In order to take part in this prestigious event, your child will be expected to attend 3 full rehearsal days, as outlined below. As this is an evening concert, we are expected back at school in the early hours of Thursday morning. Consequently, we will allow participating pupils to rest at home on the Thursday morning, to ensure that they are alive and kicking for their afternoon lessons! The school will fund travel for the rehearsal days and also for all pupils attending the trip. We are very excited to extend an invitation to a maximum of 2 adults per child to join us for the duration of the trip at an estimated cost of £15 per adult. Further and more precise details of the day will be provided in due course, but we ask that you return the attached permission slip, giving your consent for your child to attend the rehearsals and concert promptly. Please note that our school choir will be running as normal (with new old and members welcome) as a Wednesday after school club.
